Mossad Director David Barnea Addresses the World Summit on Counter-Terrorism at Reichman University

Warning by Mossad Director David Barnea ahead of the Jewish Holidays: "We watch with concern as global terror raises its evil head. We are witnessing a significant increase in attempts to attack Jews and Israelis worldwide and as we speak, we continue to track Iranian and proxy teams."

Mossad Director Barnea: "The time has come to exact a different kind of price than before. Our message is loud and clear, and determined: Make no mistake, those of you who decided to dispatch the teams. Be assured that we will get to you, and justice will be done for all to see. This has been proven in the past, and in the future, we will ramp it up to the next level."

Regarding the dialogue between Iran and the West on the nuclear issue: "We can never allow Iran to have a nuclear weapon, and it will not be allowed to do so. The international community must stand firm against Iran. The international community must not accede to a situation in which what separates Iran from military-grade enrichment is a decision alone."

Mossad Director David Barnea, today (Sunday, 10 September 2023), addressed the Reichmann University World Summit on Counter-Terrorism, in memory of the late Shabtai Shavit.

At the start of his remarks, the Mossad Director commented on the absence of the late Shabtai Shavit and expressed his condolences over, "the loss of a very special man and an exceptional commander."

Mossad Director Barnea focused on the threats to Israel posed by Iran, especially the nuclear threat, its strengthening in the region, and the Iranian state terrorism, on which he commented at length, in light of the increase in Iranian attempts to perpetrate attacks.

In a pointed speech, the Mossad Director exposed Iran's hypocrisy and emphasized the price that will be exacted from Iran, including the Iranian leadership, for its attempts to attack Jews and Israelis: "I would like to take advantage of this podium to state that any harm done to any Israeli or Jew in any way whatsoever, and I mean in any way whatsoever, via proxy or Iranian alike, will elicit a response against the Iranians who dispatched the terrorists and the policymakers who authorized the terror units. I mean what I say. The price will be exacted from deep inside Iran, in the heart of Tehran."

Mossad Director Barnea showed a video that exposed the deep Iranian involvement in terrorism around the world, including the confessions of terrorists who were sent to attack Israelis and Jews by official intelligence and security organizations. These reveal the Iranian fingerprint on terrorist activity and underscore that Iran cannot deny its responsibility for terrorism, even if it hides behind non-Iranian operations. "The Iranian regime is no longer able to deny its involvement, and most importantly, it has no immunity," he emphasized.

The Mossad Director stressed the major importance of forming a united front against Iran to restrain it in all spheres and exact from it an economic, diplomatic and legal price for its nuclear activity, its actions in the region and for terrorism.

Mossad Director Barnea called on the nations of the world to stop showing restraint in the face of Iran's conduct and commended the US for its vigorous actions to ensure freedom of navigation in the Gulf region vis-à-vis the maritime terrorism that Iran is advancing once again.

The Mossad Director also commented at length on the reasons that led the Iranian regime to have a higher sense of security in the past year, including the arms deals that Iran has carried out with Russia and the repression of the hijab protests. In this context, he said: "The more Iran's self-confidence increases, the greater become its efforts to orchestrate terror all over the world, based on its belief that the price it will have to pay will be manageable."
